12. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
13. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: IAN CHRISTIAN ANDERSON
CASE NUMBER: 1:15-CR-00069-MAC-KFG(1)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information for purposes of monitoring the defendant's efforts to obtain and maintain lawful employment and income.

The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug abuse, under the guidance and direction of the U.S. Probation Office, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay any cost associated with treatment and testing.

Under the guidance and direction of the U.S. Probation office, the defendant shall participate in any combination of psychiatric, psychological, or mental health treatment as deemed appropriate by the treatment provider.

Under the guidance and direction of the U.S. Probation Office, the defendant shall participate in sex offender treatment services. These services may include psycho-physiological testing (i.e., clinical polygraph, plethysmograph, and the ABEL screen) to monitor the defendant's compliance, treatment progress, and risk to the community. The defendant shall abide by all rules and regulations of the treatment program. The defendant shall pay any costs associated with treatment and testing. Should the defendant fail to pay as directed, the defendant shall perform 3 hours of community service for each unpaid session.

The defendant shall not have direct or indirect contact with children under the age of 18 unless supervised by an adult approved by the probation officer. This condition prohibits intentional conduct rather than inadvertent or incidental encounters with children under the age of 18.

The defendant shall not use or own any device (whether or not at his/her place of employment, residence, or elsewhere) that can be connected to the Internet or used to store digital materials other than that authorized by the probation officer. This includes, but is not limited to, desktop computers, laptops, PDA's, electronic games, and cellular telephones. The defendant shall not use any device other than the one the defendant is authorized to use. The defendant shall allow the U.S. Probation Office to install software designed to monitor activities. This may include, but is not limited to, software that may record any and all activity on the computers the defendant may use, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, Internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. The defendant will pay any costs related to the monitoring of his/her computer usage.

The defendant shall not use or possess any gaming consoles (including, but not limited to, Xbox, Playstation, Nintendo), or devices without prior permission from the probation officer.

The defendant shall not maintain or create a user account on any social networking site (i.e., Facebook.com, Twitter.com, Google+, MySpace.com, Adultfriendfinder.com, etc.) that allows access to persons under the age of 18, or allows for the exchange of sexually-explicit material, chat conversations, or instant messaging. The defendant shall neither view nor access any web profile of users under the age of 18.

DEFENDANT: IAN CHRISTIAN ANDERSON
CASE NUMBER: 1:15-CR-00069-MAC-KFG(1)

If the defendant resides in a household where a computer is present (i.e., it belongs to a parent, spouse, roommate, etc.), the owner of the computer must agree to allow the U.S. Probation Office to install software designed to monitor computer activities on such computer. This may include, but is not limited to, software that may record any and all activity on any computer the defendant may use in the residence, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, Internet use history, e-mail correspondence, and chat conversations. The defendant will pay any costs related to computer monitoring. The defendant shall advise anyone in the defendant's household that may use any computer in question that monitoring software has been installed.

The defendant shall not attempt to remove, tamper with, or in any way circumvent the monitoring software. The defendant shall not access any Internet Service Provider account or other online service using someone else's account, name, designation, or alias. The defendant shall disclose all on-line account information, including user names and passwords, to the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall also, if requested, provide a list of all software/hardware on the defendant's computer, as well as telephone, cable, or Internet service provider billing records, and any other information deemed necessary by the probation office to monitor the defendant's computer usage.

The defendant shall refrain from the purchase, possession, or use of digital cameras; digital recorders; or any other type of digital recording and/or photographic equipment.

The defendant shall not possess or view any images in any form of media or in any live venue that depicts sexually explicit conduct as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2). This includes visual, auditory, telephonic, electronic media, email, chat communications, instant messaging, or computer programs. The defendant shall not patronize any place where such material or entertainment is available. The defendant shall not use any sex-related telephone numbers.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of their conditions of supervised release.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information for purposes of monitoring his compliance with the imposed computer access/monitoring conditions.

The defendant shall refrain from working as a dance instructor for children under the age of 18 and shall refrain from performing, dancing, emceeing, or working as a DJ at events and/or venues targeting children under the age of 18.
